

I find it hard to believe the proposed PLC would not cause interference to shortwave listeners. Even a very low power transmitter on the HF bands can be heard for along distance with a simple antenna. To place a broadband HF signal on power lines running through every neighborhood to distribute the data signals would undoubtedly create havoc on the HF bands.

Please do not approve the proposed PLC.